(Initial) I have read the portion of the Wilmington Board of Health Regulations regarding selling Tobacco and/or Tobacco products to persons under the age of 18. I am aware of the penalties and fines associated with selling to a minor.

8.5 No person shall sell or offer for sale any tobacco product that has been removed from its original package or offer for sale any cigarette package that contains fewer than twenty (20) cigarettes.

8.6 No person shall sell or give any tobacco product to any person under the age of eighteen years. The fine for the sale or gift of a tobacco product to a minor shall be $300.00. Each retailer shall verify by means of valid government-issued photographic identification that each person purchasing tobacco is 18 years of age or older. No such verification is required for any person who appears to be 27 years of age or older.

8.21 The penalties for violation of these tobacco regulations by a holder of a tobacco sales permit shall be according to the following table: (1/1/97)
First Violation:

Sale of tobacco to a minor	$300.00
Other violation	50.00

Second Violation (within 12 months of the first violation):

Sale of tobacco to a minor	$300.00
Other violation	50.00
Suspension of the tobacco sales permit for a period not to exceed 7 days

Third and Subsequent Violation (within 12 months of any prior violation):

Sale of tobacco to a minor	$300.00
Other violation	50.00
Suspension of a tobacco sales permit for a period of not less than 7 days and not to exceed one year.
